

HOTEL INFORMATION

HILTON DAYTONA BEACH OCEANFRONT RESORT

The Hilton, the host hotel for the 2009 Glenn Wilkes Classic, is across the street from the Ocean Center where all the games will be played.

The Hilton Daytona Beach Oceanfront Resort is located directly on the World's Most Famous Beach in the heart of Ocean Walk Village, a $1 billion dollar seaside vacation, entertainment and meetings district in Daytona Beach, Florida.

The resort features 744 guest rooms including suites and beachfront cabanas with most rooms overlooking the Atlantic Ocean. The resort offers many amenities under one roof.

Enjoy oceanfront dining in Doc Bales' Grill, your favorite sports action in Legends Sports Bar; casual food in the beachfront food court; live music in the intimate lobby bar overlooking the Atlantic Ocean and the best fun in the sun at The Pelican Bar featuring specialty drinks, grilled specialties and your favorite beach music.

Recreation at the Hilton Daytona Beach Oceanfront Resort includes complete fitness center and pools, expansive sun deck, whirlpools, D-Dawg's Kidszone and The Spa at the Hilton featuring full services with the latest treatments and products from Pevonia Botanica®.

The resort is connected to Ocean Walk Shoppes with additional dining, entertainment and shopping and is directly across the street from Daytona Lagoon Waterpark and Arcade.

ARENA INFORMATION

THE OCEAN CENTER

It's on the doorstep of the Atlantic Ocean. It's in the heart of the "new" Daytona Beach. It's a multi-use facility that hosts conventions, tradeshows, concerts, banquets, family entertainment shows and sporting events. It's the Daytona Beach Ocean Center, open for business with more than 364,000 square feet of meeting space.

The Ocean Center, which just completed a $76 million dollar expansion project that doubled the size of the facility, is the sixth largest convention complex in the state of Florida. Learn more at www.oceancenter.com.
